

THE UNIVERSITY OF AUCKLAND ENGLISH LANGUAGE ACADEMY

GLOBAL ENGLISH PLUS PROMOTION

Global English Plus Programme

The Global English Plus programme is based around carefully selected textbooks and a wide range of supplementary materials, including a large number of online resources. The course is designed for students who want to improve their everyday English language skills and is also suitable for those who need a preparatory course before moving into the Academic English course.

Students study language structure, listening and reading skills, vocabulary and fluency and accuracy in writing and speaking. Students can personalise their study by selecting from various options for half of their study time, including focussing on business English, IELTS, writing skills and various topics. All programmes include learning sessions in our electronic self access centre (ELAB).

The programme includes 20 core hours of tuition with 2 additional workshops. Class sessions are split into morning and afternoon sessions depending on level. Session one runs from 8.30 – 12.45pm and session two runs from 1.00 – 5.15pm.

LEVELS	Elementary, Pre-Intermediate, Intermediate, Upper-Intermediate and Advanced
ENTRY	Every Monday (except New Zealand Public Holidays)

All Global English Plus students are required to do the ELA Placement Test on their first day. Students will receive an Offer of Place which includes their study commencement date.
