Academic English

PROMOTION

Academic English equips students with the skills needed to cope with university studies. Students can personalise half of their study time by focusing on either IELTS (in Modules 2, 3 & 4) or university preparation skills.

Academic English covers the following skills:

- Writing: academic styles, essay structures, paragraph writing, introductions and conclusions, cohesive devices, summary writing, editing, writing reports, academic conventions, and academic genres.
- Listening and Reading: speed reading strategies, patterns of organisation, making local and global inferences, note taking, strategies to cope with unknown vocabulary, summarising main ideas, listening for stressed words and phrases, and synthesising.
- Vocabulary/Language: academic vocabulary, prefixes and suffixes, review grammar tenses, focus on correct spelling, focus on grammatical accuracy, and variation in sentence patterns.
- Speaking and Research: formal oral presentations, use of PowerPoint, referencing, and research strategies.

Successful completion of Module 3 or 4 enables direct entry to The University of Auckland Certificate in Foundation Studies at ACG OR the Taylors Auckland Foundation Year (TAFY) programme, subject to provider approval.

Entry Requirements:

- Introduction to Academic English: An acceptable score in the ELA Placement Test which is equivalent to Academic IELTS 3.5 with Reading and Writing bands 3.5
- Module 1: An acceptable score in the ELA Placement Test which is equivalent to Academic IELTS 4.0 with Reading and Writing bands 4.0
- Module 2: An acceptable score in the ELA Placement Test which is equivalent to Academic IELTS 4.5 with Reading and Writing bands 4.5
- Module 3: An acceptable score in the ELA Placement Test which is equivalent to Academic IELTS 5.0 with Reading and Writing bands 5.0
- Module 4: An acceptable score in the ELA Placement Test which is equivalent to Academic IELTS 5.5 with Reading and Writing bands 5.5
