Foundation Certificate in English for Academic Purposes (FCertEAP) PROMOTION

The FCertEAP prepares students for academic studies, including note-taking, academic report and essay writing, exam preparation, presentation skills and communication techniques. It is a direct university pathway. FCertEAP students who successfully complete the programme with the required grade are not required to take IELTS or any other similar test.

Entry Requirements:

- Conditional Offer of Place from the University of Auckland or another New Zealand Tertiary Institution*
- An acceptable score in the ELA Placement Test or
- An Academic IELTS test score (Undergraduate students must provide an overall score of 5.0, with no less than 5.0 in Writing and postgraduate students an overall score of 5.5, with no less than 5.5 in Writing, not more than 12 months old)**

*Note: Students who have already applied to the University of Auckland but have not yet received a Conditional Offer should include a letter from the University of Auckland confirming both their application and application number. On receiving this information, the ELA will issue an FCertEAP Offer of Place to enable student visa preparation. The ELA will also contact the University of Auckland Admissions Office, where applications will be given priority. Finally, the ELA will issue a new FCertEAP Offer of Place if a Conditional Offer is received from the University.

**Students who do not provide an IELTS score or do not meet the above requirements receive an Offer of Place for Academic English. All students are required to take the ELA Placement Test, and students who do not have the required IELTS score will be informed if they have met the requirements for the FCertEAP programme from the result of this test.
